Dedications

New street names shall not duplicate nor closely approximate phonetically the name of any other street in Ouachita Parish. Street names shall be subject to the approval of the Planning Commission. In general, the use of names associated with the history and development of the City is desirable.

Revocations

Whenever a street or alley right-of-way is revoked, it is divided and deeded to the property owner(s) on either side of the right-of-way.

If utilities are present in the right-of-way, an easement will need to be retained.
